$50.00
AND
46 YEARS.

SIX Months have passed since I offered a reward of $25 for a New Home Sewing Machine that could not be repaired at the New Home office and no one yet has claimed the reward.

We have found one machine made by this company patented in 1850, forty-six years ago, and doing good work.

I NOW OFFER A
$50 New Home Machine

For one that can't be put in good running order at the New Home office, 309 Henry street, S. W.

CHARGES VERY MODERATE
You say others can offer the same. Why don't they do it?

Don't fail to see our machines before you buy.

If you want a cheap machine, in fact the best in the market for the money, give us a call. We have the Cam Motion Machine manufactured by the New Home Company, namely, the Climax—$40 installments, $30 cash; and also the New Ideal, $30 cash. Five years guarantee given on all machines by the company. The Climax machine is as good as any except the geared New Home.

We have a few second-hand machines to sell or rent. All kinds of machines repaired and parts supplied.

THE FLOWER SHOW.

The List of Prizes That Have So Far Been Decided Upon.

The Daughters of the American Revolution hope that their invitation to all flower lovers, to aid them in making the flower show next fall a success, has not been overlooked. Last this should be the case, they cordially repeat the invitation and invite all amateurs to compete for the following prizes which have kindly been offered by the following firms:

Premium list for amateurs up to date.

Peter Henderson & Co., New York, offer as a premium for the best general collection of plants, a copy of their "New Handbook of Plants," valued at $4.00.

Dingee, Conard & Co., West Grove, Pa., offer a premium of twenty fine roses to the person growing the best specimen of their new tea rose, "The Princess Bonnie," (young plants to be bought of them.)

A. B. Davis & Son, of Purcellville, Va., offer a prize of $5 in gold for the best vase of chrysanthemums of twelve blooms in at least six varieties, (young plants to be bought of them.)

Richardson Bros., of Bristol, Tenn., offer $2 worth of plants for the best general collection of chrysanthemums, and $1 worth of plants for the second best collection of same.

Jerry Shartzer, of Salem, Va., offers the following prizes, the young plants to be bought of him:

$2.50 in cash to the six best blooms of chrysanthemums grown to a single stem.

$1.50 cash to the second best of same.

$1 to the third best of same.

$2.50 in plants to the best six potted chrysanthemums.

$1.50 in plants to the second best of same.

$1 in plants to the third best of same.

W. A. Burpee & Co., of Philadelphia, offer the following:

$2 worth in seed from their "Farm Annual" for the best display of sweet pea blossoms.

$1 worth of seed to the second best display of same.

Paul Massie, of "Massie's Pharmacy," offers the four following prizes:

1st. $4.50 in gold to the finest collection of blooming geraniums.

2nd. $2.50 in gold to the finest collection of blooming begonias.

3rd. $2.50 in gold to the finest collection of dahlias.

4th. $2.50 in gold to the finest display of roses.

Richardson Bros., of Bristol, Tenn., will pay special attention to any orders for flowers and will give reasonable rates for same.

The managers have decided to offer a children's prize, to encourage a love of flowers in the little ones. One dollar in gold for the best six plants grown by a child.

For professional growers the managers offer a handsome silver medal for the finest display of chrysanthemums.

A medal, duplicate of above, to the finest display of carnations.

These two medals are presented to the ladies of the society by E. S. Green, manufacturing jeweler, designed and made entirely at his establishment.

Persons desiring to compete for prizes will please communicate with Mrs. Thos. Lewis, chairman of committee on reception of plants.

The managers expect to secure a handsome display of flowers from the "Miller Manual Labor School," of Albemarle county, Va. Their greenhouses have a reputation, and their display will add much to the beauty of the show.

The Discovery Saved His Life;
MR. G. CAILLOUETTE, Druggist, Reaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We don't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at Paul Massie's Pharmacy.

STERLING bicycles, built like a watch, at Yost-Forrer Co.

You can be served with a nice lunch at Crystal Spring Cafe.

Go to Donaldson's for Carpets, Matting and Oil Cloth.

MR. JAMES PERDUE, an old soldier residing at Monroe, Mich., was severely afflicted with rheumatism, but received prompt relief from pain by using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "At times my back would ache so badly that I could hardly raise up. If I had not gotten relief I would not be here to write these few lines. Chamberlain's Pain Balm has done me a great deal of good and I feel very thankful for it." For sale by the Chas. Lyle Drug Co.
